Chapter 57-a. Of the Consolidated Laws

Article IV. Automated Decision-Making in State Government [eff. Dec. 21, 2025. See, Also, Article 4 eff. Until Dec. 21, 2025.] (Refs & Annos)

McKinney's State Technology Law § 404

§ 404. Submission to the governor and legislature

Currentness

<[Eff. Dec. 21, 2025.]>

1. Each impact assessment conducted pursuant to this article shall be submitted to the governor, the temporary president of the senate, and the speaker of the assembly at least thirty days prior to the implementation of the automated decision-making system that is the subject of such assessment.

2. (a) The impact assessment of an automated decision-making system shall be published on the website of the relevant state agency.

(b) If the state agency makes a determination that the disclosure of any information required in the impact assessment would result in a substantial negative impact on health or safety of the public, infringe upon the privacy rights of individuals, or significantly impair the state agency's ability to protect its information technology or operational assets, such state agency may redact such information, provided that an explanatory statement on the process by which the state agency made such determination is published along with the redacted impact assessment.

(c) If the impact assessment covers any automated decision-making system that includes technology that is used to prevent, detect, protect against or respond to security incidents, identity theft, fraud, harassment, malicious or deceptive activities or other illegal activity, preserve the integrity or security of systems, or to investigate, report or prosecute those responsible for any such malicious or deceptive action, such state agency may redact such information for the purposes of this subdivision, provided that an explanatory statement on the process by which the state agency made such determination is published along with the redacted impact assessment.
